IT WAS ROBERT SPEAR.

The Man Who Made the Leap to Death

It is now thought that the man who umped from the Aqueduct Bridge on Wednesday was Robert Spear of No. BCB E street. Mr. Spear disappeared from his home that day, and has not been seen since. He and his wife had been rooming with Mrs. Shedd Merwin at the number above given for several years. He was 68 years of age, and during war times was engaged in the shipbuilding business on the lower Potomac, and he and his brokher. Heatherly Spear, have a claim before Congress for ship timber furnished the Congress for the part of the fair Government at the time. They felt confident that Congress would act favor ably upon this chain during the recent session, but it was not done.

On Wednesday night Mr. Spear falled to return home and Mrs. Spear passed a restless night. He had never before absented himself in this way without some explanation. When the facts in record to an approximation facts in regard to an unknown man jumping from the Aqueduct Bridge appeared in the papers, both Mrs. Spear and Mrs. Merwin began to make inquiries, and they have obtained enough information to satisfy them that it was Mr. Spear

Mr. Spear.
Last night Mrs. Merwin went to the Georgetown station-house and identified the but left upon the bridge as that worn by Mr. Spear when he left home. He has not been in his right mind for some time, and labored under the hallucinality that he had a patent for a telephone by which he could communicate with the whole world. A reward has been offered for the recovery of the

THE MARYLAND SYNOD TRANSACTS ITS BUSINESS AND ADJOURNS.

Various Reports Adopted Churches Admitted and Dropped-Delegates Elected and Interesting Closing Exercises Last Night,

The afternoon session of the Lutheran Synod was opened yesterday with prayer by Rev. Dr. Diehi. President Studebaker announced the appointment of Rev. Dr. Morris as historian and blographer of the Synod.

The motion to adopt and print in the minutes of the Synod the report of the commit ee on a "provisional catechism" was carried by a small majority.

The Rev. Dr. Parker, chairman of the conmittee on the president's annual reat, reported several resolutions pro-cing for the publication of a sketch of e late Rev. Dr. Dosh, to be prepared by one of the members of the Synod, and forwarded to the Southern Historical Society at Gettysburg. The report also recommended that, on account of the delay is the legal ratification of the new name of the congregation served by Dr. Diebl in Frederick, Md., the congregation present itself with a corporate title different from that borne by the congregation in that place now con-nected with the Synod, and also that it change its constitution and require its pastor to be a member of the Maryland

In regard to the defection of St. Peter's Church, Baltimore, the report recommended that the Board of Home Missions take legal steps to recover moneys loaned to that church. The report also recommended that the name of H. W. Jordy be stricken from the roll of the Synod and the further disposition of the case referred to the ministerium.
